

Toll Brothers Welcomes New General Manager At Brier Creek Country Club

(RALEIGH, N.C.) – Toll Brothers, (NYSE: TOL) (TollBrothers.com) the nation’s leading builder of luxury homes and developer of fine communities around the Triangle, has announced that their Golf & Country Club Division, Toll Golf, has named Don Smith General Manager at Brier Creek Country Club. Brier Creek Country Club is Toll Brothers award-winning Triangle community featuring an 18-hole Arnold Palmer Signature Golf Course. Mr. Smith will be responsible for overseeing all service and staff operations at the club.

Prior to joining Brier Creek Country Club, Smith spent the past five years at MacGregor Downs Country Club, in Cary. During that time he worked to implement operating policies and procedures that resulted in a significant financial turnaround, enhanced member experiences and directed multiple mission-critical capital projects.

“Don has a tremendous amount of expertise in managing country clubs and enhancing members’ overall club experience,” said David Richey, President of Golf and Country Club Division at Toll Brothers. “The staff at Brier Creek Country Club is known for its commitment to outstanding member service and we are delighted to add someone with his talents to our team.”

Smith is originally from Medford, Massachusetts, and went on to attend the University of Massachusetts in 1978. He landed his first general manager position in 1993 at Passaconaway Country Club in Litchfield, N.H. Smith moved to North Carolina in 1995 with his wife, Susan, and their three children when he was named general manager at Crooked Creek Golf Club in Fuquay-Varina, N.C. When not at work, Smith loves to volunteer for the Make-A-Wish Foundation and is an avid cyclist.

“I’m honored to join the Toll Brothers team here at Brier Creek Country Club,” said Smith. “Just like their award winning homes, Toll Brothers through Toll Golf designs and operates country clubs with unmatched quality and service. Brier Creek Country Club is no exception; I look forward to continuing this high standard as I work with the residents and members of this beautiful community.”
